

ALEGLASS

Formed in December 2005, Aleglass have recorded their first album which was released June 2009. Aleglass are a four piece original band focused on writing songs about drinking, playing and more drinking. The first album is called 'Here's To You' and contains 11 original tracks. The first single off 'Here's To You' is called 'All For Fun (Legless Again)'. The second single off 'Here's To You' is called 'Cedarlee'. While the modern world now would like to condone to much of a good time, Aleglass embraces the good times and looks to provide a suitable soundtrack for these times - this world is not standing still and nor are we. People get ready to jump up and down (but no spillages please)...someone order a round! We will be recording the follow up to 'Here's To You' (entitled 'Here's To Me') in July 2009 at W.A.S.P. Studio's in Perth. W.A.S.P. Studio's is owned and run by Derek Fernandez who previously owned and ran Gerico Recording Studio's with his brother for some 15 years in Perth's inner suburbs. All songs were written by David Moran (formally of 'The Date'), Mark Thomas on drums, James Hastings on keyboard and Ron Hastings on Bass. 'All For Fun (Legless Again)' along with the album 'Here's To You' can be found in 78 Records, Hay St, Perth or ordered on line by emailing aleglass@inet.net.au.
